

Takutai Kāpiti Co-Design Working Group Facilitator

Marlene Oliver

Marlene has been a senior manager in local government and is Director of her own consulting practice based in Auckland. She is a qualified mediator and has practised extensively as an environmental mediator and facilitator.

Marlene is an experienced environmental professional having worked in resource management and planning for more than 40 years.

Marlene was appointed as a full-time Environment Commissioner on the Environment Court of NZ for 12 years from 2004.

Over the last 10 years Marlene has contributed to international environmental programmes in the Asia Pacific Region for UN Environment and Asia Development Bank. She worked in Bhutan for 2 years (2016-17), including holding the position of Professor, Environmental Management.